Re: MUR 3774
Coalitions for America, Inc.

Dear Ms. Odrowski:

We received the attached letter on February 28, 1997. It will be somewhat beyond March 28 before we are able to respond. I have been traveling. Further, our client's 1992 pertinent records were returned to storage.

Although the fault may not be yours, we are obliged to complain vigorously about the on-again, off-again pursuit of this matter. For the reasons set forth in our Answer dated July 12, 1993, the Federal Election Commission should have dismissed the case long ago. Instead, there have been substantial time intervals between each FEC action, which increases the time we and our client, as well as FEC personnel, must spend on this matter. Time is cost. The [Second] Interrogatories, doubtless unintentionally, reflect the fact that the case has nothing to do with a federal election, much less the 1992 Georgia senatorial campaign, under the ruse of which Complainant, the Democratic Senatorial Campaign Committee, recklessly swept our client into this matter.

Sincerely,

MARION EDWYN HARRISON
